Re: Jacquelyn B. N'Jai receipt of a letter from the SSA Office of Hearings Operations, dated March 27, 2018, by a Barbette A. Smith, Director-Division of Administrative Support.

April 2, 2018

Attn: RPAO:

Since I had not heard from the SSA, I wrote this Complaint to go into the Federal District Court days prior to receiving the above-mentioned letter. It has not been filed, as I will attempt to exhaust any administrative remedies with your department.

The facts, evidence and other information in this Official Complaint that I am now filing in your office, will give you clarity of my position, as I await your final determination.

It is also important to note that I do not have the referenced February 28, 2018 letter that the SSA Monroeville claimed it sent me. I am requesting a copy of that letter for my records.

Please accept my official complaint, and evidence list- to attach to my letter sent to you.

Respectfully Submitted,
